Working for Freedom

Based on the Book Series
A History of US
by Joy Hakim

Working for Freedom (30:00)
As industrial progress continues and the gap between the rich and poor widens, a new labor movement emerges to advocate for workers' rights. The strike at Lawrence, Massachusetts, is a victory for workers; and Susan B. Anthony gives the way for women's right to vote. Part of the series Freedom: A History of US. Distributed by PBS Distribution. (30 minutes)

Assignment # 6

LibGuides is a vast resource on the Elie website for finding information on almost any subject you can think of. The interest areas range from the arts to health sciences to vocations. Each subject further provides detailed sources for specific areas of interest. For example under vocations there are guides for educational training ranging from Automotive Mechanic, Biotechnology Tech, Culinary Arts, EMT Certification, Real-Estate and many, many more. This is a great site for anyone interested in career possibilities.
